

Welcome to THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Comfort. Compassion. Care.

Bon Secours Province Place of DePaul is designed to help make assisted living feel like home. We've designed residences exclusively for those in need of assistance with daily living—from short, respite and recuperative care stays to long-term daily living—with a focus on the comforts of home, along with companionship, 24-hour care and a compassionate staff.

Overview

- One and two-bedroom suites available, furnished and well-decorated
- Licensed nursing oversight, 24/7
- Assistance with bathing, dressing, grooming and medications, as needed
- Delicious and nutritious home-cooked meals, served in private dining rooms
- Excellent staff-to-resident ratio, and 24-hour on-call emergency health services
- A range of healthy activities for the mind, body and spirit
- Transportation to medical appointments and local errands
- Weekly housekeeping and laundry service

A Community Concept

Each suite at Province Place of DePaul is equipped with its own private bathroom and kitchenette, with individually controlled heating and cooling for personal comfort. Each suite is also part of a shared “neighborhood,” with shared living rooms and dining rooms for spending time together, along with enclosed courtyards and screened-in porches to enjoy with friends and family.

Amenities include:

- Several suite styles and sizes to choose from
- Emergency call signals in each bedroom and bathroom
- State-of-the-art fire safety and security systems

A Place to Share

Province Place of DePaul offers a wide variety of activities, created to stimulate the mind, body and spirit. Our programs—designed to appeal to our residents' diverse interests and abilities—include cooking and exercise classes, gardening, arts and crafts, games and discussions of current events. In addition, local clergy celebrate Mass and regularly conduct interfaith services for spiritual enrichment.

A Mission of Caring

Province Place of DePaul is an affiliate of Bon Secours Health System—the fourth largest and only faith-based health system in Virginia—and is sponsored by the Sisters of Bon Secours. Our mission is to bring compassion to health care, offering you and your loved ones a tradition of caring and service that you can trust.
